Course Policies

Commitment to Optimal Learning for All Students: In the College of Education and Human Services we believe that our individual differences can deepen our understanding of one another and the world around us rather than divide us. I, as the instructor of this class, value people of all races and ethnicities, genders and gender identities, religions and spiritual beliefs, ages, sexual orientations, disabilities, socioeconomic backgrounds, regions, and nationalities. As the instructor, I strongly encourage everyone to share their rich array of perspectives and experiences, but to do so in a way that is respectful of others. Our discussions are opportunities for each of us to challenge underlying assumptions about our beliefs as we advance our knowledge, skills, and dispositions as professionals in our chosen discipline. I reserve the right to intervene in discussions/communication between and among students if the atmosphere begins to appear hostile or aggressive in any manner. My role as instructor is to ensure a classroom environment that is optimal for the learning of all students. If you feel your differences may in some way isolate you from our class community or if you have a need for any specific accommodations, please speak with me early in the semester about your concerns and what we can do together to help you become an active and engaged member of our class and community.

Policy on Late Assignments: Late assignments may be accepted at the discretion of the instructor. (4.1) (a) 13 (r) 4 c (
